

Janet M Gullickson April 13, 1923 - December 3, 2003

Janet M. Gullickson, age 80, passed away on Dec. 3, 2003, at Hebron Oaks at Oakwood Village West, Madison.

She was born on April 13, 1923, in Wausau, the daughter of Bill and Laura (Engels) Maxwell. On May 31, 1947, she married Stuart G. Gullickson at the First United Methodist Church in Wausau. She had lived in Madison since 1967.

A graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Janet was the Director of Badger Girls State and was very active in many organizations such as Alpha Xi Delta Sorority; member of Chapter BL PEO Sisterhood; president of the Jaycettes (Merrill); president of the YWCA (Wausau); Dane County Lawyer's Spouses.

She is survived by her husband Stuart G. Gullickson of Madison; three daughters, Beth Gullickson (David Nelson) and Ann Gullickson (Harry Carnes), all of Madison, and Lynn Gullickson Carlson (Bill Carlson), Appleton; seven grandchildren, Molly and Chloe Nelson, Dan and Frank Carnes, Lisa (Pavel Vrbsky), and Katie and Ann Carlson; one brother, Robert (Marge) Maxwell, Columbia, S.C.; nieces and nephews, Tom Maxwell, Melissa (Andrew) Shiavone, Gregg (Ursula) Johnson, Kim (Rob) Vane, Doug (Jean Demopolus) Johnson, Beth (Marty) Hauser, Steve (Linda) Martin, Mark Martin, Alan (Claire) Martin, Dick (Jane) Gullickson, Kristine Gullickson, Jim Gullickson and Andrea Keib ; two sisters-in-law, Phylis Johnson and Lois (Romuald) Martin.

A memorial service will be at the Chapel of Oakwood Village West in Madison at 11 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 13, 2003. Private family internment will be held at a later date at the Restlawn Cemetery in Wausau.

Should anyone wish to make contributions in Janet's memory, they may be made to the Alzheimer's Association Inc. South Central Wisconsin Chapter, and Oakwood Foundation Inc.